Southeast Country Coachers Caravan to Cody, WY

The caravan out to the CCI rally in Cody was a great adventure. We had several Southeast Country Coachers and a couple of coaches from the nearby states of Arkansas and Florida.

We started out in Memphis where we arrived just a day or so after the floods receded. We had a great view of the barges constantly traveling the river, along with whole trees downed by the flood. We went on to Arkansas and then to Oklahoma City, where we visited the wonderful Western Heritage Museum. We left in a big hurry the next morning to get ahead of the second bad tornado that hit OKC. It hit later that day very close to where we had camped. At our next stop, Amarillo, we arrived a day after a huge hail storm.

We all really enjoyed several days in romantic Santa Fe. The Sanders spend every summer there, so we got the insiders' tour of town. Here is Marylou & Jack Cassingham enjoying lunch in an old hacienda's courtyard.

Next stop at Loveland, CO, gateway to Rocky Mountains National Park. We lunched at the historic Stanley Hotel, inspiration for Stephen King's

The Shining, then drove to the top of the mountain pass above 12,000 feet and found lots of snow. The snow was still being plowed from the visitors center, newly opened after the wintertime. Yes, in JUNE.

With all that snow, of course there was a snowball fight. The location of the rally in Cody, WY, was perfect for touring Yellowstone and nearby mountains, rafting rapids right in town. There was plenty of time to visit with old friends and take advantage of coach repairs. In this photo a coach is having their windshield replaced as Gerard Awnings arrives for work next door.

The highlight of the rally was dinner at the historic Irma Hotel with a cowboy gunfight reenactment just outside, then on to a fantastic cowboy musical review.

At our grand finale dinner Kathy Letulle, who is also CCI Rally Coordinator, was the big surprise of the evening. She is an amazing and entertaining auctioneer. Between the auction, Sheriff's collections and raffle, the CCI rally made a generous donation to the Paralyzed Veterans of America"

Rick and Tammy Toalson Reflect on their First Trip to Wyoming and the CCI Rally

I must admit I was a little shocked when Tammy asked me if we could go to the CCI rally in Cody, WY. My first thoughts were of how many gallons (oops, I mean miles), it is to get there. We always have a great time at the rallies and I acquiesced to my wonderful wife and said, "Sure, whatever you want to do is fine with me." For any of you other married men, this is a key phrase in a happy relationship.

Packing for winter and summer weather, carrying all of the extra gear for the rally, and even letting Dixie (our Sheltie) bring all of her toys, didn't max out the room in our new ride, a 45 foot long 2006 Affinity. We even had room for Tammy's embroidery equipment and supplies in the coach! We had previously carried them in the back of our tow vehicle.

In early March, the Affinity took the place of our former trusty steed, a 1999 Magna with no slides. We took several short shake down runs before we took off on the cross-country ride from Florida to Wyoming. It was a good thing we did. We found the shocks were worn out, the alignment was out, and the tires were out-of-date. We spent a month quieting the shakes and rattles. We had the loose windows tightened in Hudson, FL. A little weather-strip here, a bead of clear silicone there, a thin wedge of wood under a loose board and bingo, we had the dream ride we had hoped for. The biggest advantage was learning how all of the new systems worked and adjusting to this new rig.

We arrived at the rally two days early so we could visit and get a lay of the area before we started. Cody is a picturesque, small town centered among some of the most beautiful scenery in the world (just my humble opinion). Snow-capped mountains and crisp clean air surrounded us. Beyond the coach is a gaggle of old friends and just as many new ones waiting to be met.

Our members are the best part of any rally.

We share our coach experiences, learn from each other, attend educational seminars, share meals and drink together. We spent several days on road trips to Yellowstone National Park. The bison were everywhere. Sometimes they were by themselves on the side of the road and sometimes they numbered in the hundreds right in front of you. These majestic beasts are truly a symbol of our American frontier heritage.

Fantastic waterfalls, geysers, crystal clear rivers and streams, and wildlife of almost every sort are in Yellowstone. Coming here has made a dream come true for us. Words are inadequate to describe this treasure. It has to be witnessed. One thing for sure, this might be my first trip to Wyoming but it won't be my last. There is too much to see in a week or maybe even a month.

We were very fortunate to have Eric Olstrom and Pat from Premier Motor Coach in Tucson, AZ, at this rally.

They were instrumental in fixing issues on a great many coaches here. RV Glass had their technicians on-site and replaced broken glass for the people that needed it. They adjusted our windows and cleaned our windshield to see if it needed any repairs. The Girard awning techs replaced missing screws in our awnings and adjusted them free-of-charge! There were other companies here that supported our rally as well. The benefits of attending a rally far exceed the costs of attending!

We have been blessed enough to have been traveling to rallies since 2003 and each one is like a family reunion except the people don't treat you as bad as some of our family members do! Each one is personalized to some extent by the rally hosts. Kathe and Derrel Letulle put their heart and efforts in to this rally and made it one of the most memorable for us. Thanks to everyone who participated in this wonderful event. We look forward to seeing you again soon!

Cody Rally
Cody, Wyoming, June, 2013*

The Cody, WY, CCI Rally would not have been successful had it not been for all the awesome volunteers and attendees. These are the individuals that MAKE A RALLY.

The outpouring of generosity from attendees for the Rally Charity - Paralyzed Veterans of America, gave the most uplifting spirit of fulfillment.

Attendees were attending seminars, touring the area, feasting at the Irma Hotel, entertained by Dan Miller and Company at his theater, resting at the Absaroka Bay Campground, nightly entertained by DJ Lamar Keck, enjoying excellent catered food, and badgered for the 50/50 and live auction tickets.

Whatever could one ask for to have a good time!!! Be assured future rallies will be 5 - yes 5 days and nights, including Branson, to incorporate a free day! Requested and answered.

My heartfelt thank you goes out to all attendees - YOU ARE AWESOME and hope that everyone has gone away with a better education in one area or another. The Goal for the CCI Cody Rally was met.

Congratulations!

ROCKY MOUNTAIN COUNTRY COACHERS BUFFALO BILL RALLY at Ponderosa RV Park Cody, WY, June 19 – 23, 2013

There was some wind during the pre-rally when about 12 coaches arrived, but the wind didn't affect our fun.

On Wednesday by the time all the coaches arrived and registered, we were ready for Happy Hour with heavy hors d'oeuvres and our traditional Purple Pumpkin contest. Without previous knowledge to us, the International Society of Winds Gods had assembled above the Big Horn Basin. The winds and squalls of 60+mph began about 7 pm and continued until about 3 am. The coaches were rocking most of the night and some members pulled their slides in. A few members complained about feeling slightly nauseous during the night. Sure would like to know who won the contest among the wind gods and what was the prize?

We had breakfast at the Sunset House, which was a short walk from the Park on Wednesday morning. The wind wasn't as bad and by the time we went on the Trolley Tour of Cody the sun was shining.

In one hour we were told 100 years of Cody's history.

After the excellent tour, some of us went to the Buffalo Bill Center of the West. The Center is five museums and takes two days to see all of it. The Center consists of The New Buffalo Bill Museum, Plains Indian Museum, Cody Firearms Museum, Whitney Gallery of Western Art and the Draper Museum of Natural History. After Happy Hour, we walked to the Sunset House for a dinner buffet.

Again on Friday, we had the buffet breakfast at the Sunset House. Vern, President, had a few announcements about the Creede Rally and Reggie gave the tentative agenda of the Business Meeting Rally to be held in March at the Cotton Lane RV Park in Goodyear, AZ.

Breakfast on Saturday was again at the Sunset House. Many of us went onto BLM land to look for McCullough Peaks Wild Mustangs. We saw five bachelors on the hill top. Our tour guide had his German Shepherd, Cody, along with us. The "watch horse" kept his eyes on Cody because German Shepherds are about the same size as wolves, which harass the horses. DNA has been done on the horses in this area and they are a combination of domestic horses brought over by the Spanish; and English horses given to William Cody by Queen Victoria.

That evening we car-pooled downtown to the Irma Hotel, which was owned at one time by Bill Cody and named for his daughter. We had very good seats to watch the Gunfight in front of the Hotel. Of course, the good guys won! We had the privilege to have dinner in the Governor's Room in the Hotel. The prime rib was excellent.

Sunday morning we had coffee and muffins at the Park site and said our goodbyes until next time.

FMCA CCI Gillette Report

FMCA CCI CHAPTER MEETING GILLETTE, WY

Returning home after the 2012 rally in Indianapolis, I stumbled over a posting on the forum, asking other CCI members to respond and proceed to an informal “get together.”

Wow, what a missed opportunity, so I thought next time we will not let that pass on.

Signing up for this year’s 50th anniversary FMCA rally in Gillette was a real opportunity, so I decided to do something. I contacted Jane in the office, launched the idea, she got into action, got it approved, got the location from FMCA along with time slot and we were off and running.

Well, not really running. Due to the late entry, this was not mentioned on any schedules, so I am walking the grounds for 3 hours, looking at 2,600 coaches, each Country Coach got a flyer behind the wipers. Might even have missed a few.

Bingo folks, 60 people showed, fair to say, approximately 30 coaches. With the help, guidance, and presentation support of Kathe Letulle, we managed to seat them all, so we did not need to sell standing room tickets. Kathe asked the participants to introduce themselves and to spice it up with years in RV’ing, marriage and others. Up to 60 years were shared with the audience.

CCI provided a boost of refreshments to keep the conversations going, while non members emptied the table of literature and sign-up sheets. Next time, we should try 2 hours. Thanks Kathe for your help, without whom I would still stumble to figure out how the microphone works.

On the last day of the rally the grounds were blessed with a 60-70 miles per hour hail storm turning the area into Bering Sea conditions. Hope all coaches were pulling out of the mud on their own power.

CCI can look back at a great function!

Your Board

FROM YOUR PRESIDENT by Bill Brock

We as motor coach owners are fortunate to have the ability to choose different modes of transportation for our travel. Not only am I President of Country Coach International but I'm also on the Board of Directors of an International organization of independent Funeral Directors. Because of time restraints, Linda and I are flying to Chicago to attend meetings in the little town of Galena in the northwest corner of Illinois. I don't mind flying but I do mind the preparations of packing, traffic at the airport and the check-in procedures of removing your clothing and opening your bags at the airport. As I mentioned earlier, we are very lucky to have our motor coaches for travel where we don't have to worry about such things.

I mentioned in last months letter about PMS (Planned Maintenance System). Batteries are very important to the systems that operate our coaches and the maintenance of those batteries is imperative. Also pay close attention to the devices that charge those batteries such as inverters and echo chargers. I recently replaced my inverter due to a fault in the integrated charger. Keep your batteries clean and happy and they will take care of you.

Your CCI Board of Directors is working hard for you and have planned our next tele-conference. It is the plan of the Board to have a conference call once a month to stay on the cutting edge of the motor coach industry and keep our Club vibrant. We have a new SouthWest VP, Rod Kenly. We welcome him aboard and look forward to working with him.

In closing I would like to thank Jane Jordan and Kathe Letulle for their work at the Cody, WY, rally. Along with these two ladies and the VP's of CCI I'm sure this was a memorable event for those who were able to attend. Speaking of rallies, don't forget to send in your registration for the upcoming rally in Branson. I'm sure it will be outstanding.

P.S. Galena, IL, is a wonderful little town to visit. It is chuck full of history for those of us that love times gone by. Take time to visit the heartland of our country.

Safe travels, Bill

Your Board

by Jane Jordan

Once upon a time, all across this land they lived happily after!! That's the story of CCI. Resilient as ever - conquering every task necessary to thrive as the ever growing ORIGINAL Country Coach Owners Club.

Annual Member Dues have been reduced back to $50 and we are reaping the rewards of this bold move. Many, many members are taking advantage of this generous offer. Many of whom had let their dues lapse for more than a year or two are returning. This active Club is making moves to increase the benefits for members while working on ways to balance the Club finances and realign the governing board to give you the best bang for your buck. Thank you for your continued support.

If your dues expired long ago, you can renew your membership at any time and enhance your CC lifestyle by renewing online; calling the Club office with your credit card information or mailing in a check. Call the Club office to check on your membership if you are in doubt or can't find your member cards.

And don't forget that if you have already paid your CCI dues in 2013, you are eligible to extend your dues to 2015 by only paying $20 before December 31st - or - you can use your $30 credit toward the next CCI Rally registration fee for the Branson, MO, rally in November. You will want to be among the first 75 coaches to sign up for this rally! An amazing schedule is being prepared for your enjoyment. Don't delay - register today!!

New members can now join CCI for only $75 too! (The extra $25 is to cover the cost of your official CCI name badges.) Sign up a Friend today!!

On The Road Again

What a great rally CCI held in Cody, WY! You will see just how great it was by the contents of this eNewsletter. There were coach owners from more than 25 different states, that gathered together for a wonderful week. The Cody area is rich with history and CCI served up their famous Western Style Hospitality to boot.

During the FMCA Family Reunion in Gillette, WY, last month, CCI member Hans Schouten hosted a fun and informative Chapter Meeting for all Country Coach Enthusiasts. There were over 60 CC lovers at the meeting and emcee Kathe Letulle did a fine job of promoting CCI to the guests. We gained new friends and new members too. Thank you Hans for being a super CCI advocate!

We welcomed 11 new member families from 6 different states in June! Check out the New Members list in this eNews and if any of them are close to you, be sure and give them a warm welcome too. If you happen to meet a Country Coach owner who is not yet a member of CCI or doesn't know how wonderful your Club is, please invite them to learn about CCI. Print out copies of the membership application in this issue and hand it out whenever you can. It's time to plant more seeds so our Club can blossom.

I hope you are having a happy and healthy summer. The weather in Oregon is gorgeous! If you are traveling through, be sure and give me a call, I would love to meet with you.

Happy travels!

Jane Jordan, Club Manager
