2016 Spring CCI Rally

“Meet Me in St. Louis”

April 25 - 29, St. Charles/St. Peter, MO; 370 Lakeside Park

Celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Gateway Arch; & the 1904 St. Louis World’s Fair!

Join us, as we rally just west of St. Louis. We’ll highlight an iconic National Landmark - the Gateway Arch; and an International Event - the 1904 Louisiana Purchase Exposition, known as the St. Louis World’s Fair.

Our Rally will be at 370 Lakeside Park, located in St. Charles Country, near Historic St. Charles, where you can relive the Early American Spirit. This charming community, located on the banks of the Missouri River, was Missouri’s First State Capitol. You’ll visit one-of-a-kind shops located in restored buildings that date back to the 1800’s. Stroll along brick paved streets. You’ll also find frontier re-enactments, arts and crafts demonstrations, music, art fairs, and festivals.

370 Lakeside Park. At 300 acres, this new park off of Highway 370 is the largest of 25 parks in St. Peters, but you’ll feel remote from urban hassle and noise. 370 Lakeside Park includes a 140-acre recreational lake with fishing, a 3-mile walking/pet trail surrounding the lake, and the RV park. We will be using one of the 2 Park Pavilions and an event tent, both of which are a few seconds from our Motorhome sites. All sites will be full hookup. Depending in your choice of site, the nightly fee will be $34.40 to $38.70, and you will be able to rent at this rate for early arrival or to stay after. The RV campground area is fully landscaped, the trees still young enough that satellite acquisition will not be a problem. The website is

<http://www.stpetersmo.net/lakeside-park.aspx>

Themes we are working on for the rally include the following, plus other options:

The Louisiana Purchase Exposition, aka, St. Louis World’s Fair. The Fair’s 1,200 acre was located at the present-day grounds of Forest Park and on the campus of Washington University. The 1904 fair inspired the song “Meet Me in St. Louis, Louis,” & movie “Meet Me in St. Louis.” A number of foods were introduced or popularized at the fair - the waffle-style ice cream cone, the hamburger, hot dog, peanut butter, iced tea, and cotton candy. Hum, sounds like a potluck!

The Gateway Arch. At 630-feet tall, the Gateway Arch remains the tallest man-made national monument in the United States. An enclosed tram inside the Arch takes you to the top, where you will experience breathtaking views of modern St. Louis – up to 30 miles in each direction on a clear day.

A Day in Historic St. Charles. Many who visit characterize historic St. Charles as the Williamsburg of the West. The focal point for a number of the rally events will be in parks or along the brick-covered Main Street downtown. The St. Charles Main Street, an easy 7 miles from our campground, lies right along the historic, park-lined Missouri River.

Main Street is about 8 city blocks of historic buildings, restaurants, pubs, and shops of all kinds. You can read all about it in your FMCA magazine or at the FMCA website. Jeanne and Lee Zaborowski, your rally hosts, spent a good part of this past Monday, December 21 walking Main Street, end to end twice, enjoying the Christmas sights, having lunch, and recruiting shops to offer special discounts for our Poker Run, just for you during our April Rally.

Register now at the CCI website (<http://countrycoachclub.com/>) or with the form on the next page.

Your Board

FROM your PRESIDENT

by Lee Zaborowski

With 2016 beginning to unfold I thought I'd take stock of how our club has been doing of late. All and all, pretty good.

All the CCI club organizational upheavals post- 2007 are past; the economy is still not really strong, nevertheless the RV industry is growing again, and Country Coach Corporation has survived bankruptcy and there is potential for a bright future with Winnebago.

CCI has adapted well to the changes of the last 7-8 years. Membership is now stable and beginning to show some growth, even with our commitment to be true to our mission of emphasis on only Country Coach Motorhomes and Owners. We are pure Country Coach and plan to keep it that way.

Gone is the Club Office and paid staff. We miss Jane Jordan but the volunteer Board, with membership help and a top website management service, continue to do a great job.

We are financially strong, even with the same dues ($50) as 10 years ago. Our rally rates have changed little in the past decade, with the main increase being a result of host campground site fees going up (something we can't control).

We're making new efforts to give back to members the benefits of the overall club success with rally shirt giveaways, and the opportunity to earn CCI bucks for attending rallies and/or recruiting new members. More member benefits are on the horizon in 2016.

We're now doing 3 rallies a year instead of 2 and reciprocal partnering with other Country Coach clubs has been a great experience, with all clubs benefiting. Members from all clubs have enjoyed this arrangement and new friends and members have been made.

If there's one thing I'd like to see more of it's hearing from you our members. So, if you have a rally idea, an article or picture, running for a Board office, volunteering for a committee, let us know. Join in the fun of being fully involved.

Lee

FROM the SECRETARY by Eric Arnold

Happy New Year everyone! I hope everybody had a great Christmas too! We were fortunate to have some of my wife's family meet us for Christmas in Panama City Beach, FL. It's always great when you can get the grandparents and grand kids together for Christmas morning. Btw, Santa was good to all!

The 2016 rally schedule for CCI looks to be packed full of good times. The first rally is at Lazyday's in Tampa in Feb, the second is in St Louis at the 370 Lakeside Park Campground in April, and the third is at the Kentucky Horse Park in October. The Tampa rally is right around the corner and we are going to have a very good crowd there. As we did at Shipshe-wana last year, CCI is teaming up with the Heartland-ers to host the rally, so I have no doubt that a good time will be had by all.

Speaking of rallies, my family and I just attended the rally at the Florida RV Super Show in Tampa, FL. Wow, talk about RV and RV gadget overload! It is fun though to see all the new bells and whistles that the industry comes up with and since every RV manufacturer is here you can really do some side by side comparisons. No new coach for us though as we are very spoiled by the awesome build quality of our Country Coach!

Hope to see you on the road
Eric Arnold

12 Things Not To Buy In 2016

This time of the year is a good time to set goals for next year. A perennial favorite is, "I will not buy everything I want." But even better might be "I will not want everything I see." Some highly-touted products are outright scams, while others have alternatives that are much less expensive. Some are available for free! Read on to see my list of things NOT to buy in 2016...

Don't Buy These Products!

You don't have to fall for marketers' temptations, but you don't always have to deny yourself the benefits they tout, either. The functionality of some products may be included in others that you already own, or available free of charge, or at least a lot cheaper than "as seen on TV."

Some other products may just be unnecessary, and the worst are complete scams that don't deliver any benefit. Let's go through my list of stuff on which you shouldn't spend your hard-earned money:

(1) WINDOWS 10 -- I'm not dissing the latest and greatest from the folks in Redmond, mind you. It's just that if you have Windows 7 or 8.1, the upgrade to Windows 10 is free until July 28, 2016. If you're still using XP or Vista, you're better off buying a modern PC when you replace that obsolete operating system; all new Windows PCs come with Windows 10.

(2) ANTIVIRUS -- Along those lines, are you still paying for internet security software? There's nothing wrong with the Norton or McAfee antivirus that came with your computer, except for the price tag. My article on Free Anti-Virus Programs will clue you in on several alternatives that provide excellent protection.

(3) DIGITAL CAMERAS -- Clunky dedicated digital cameras are dispensable for the average consumer. The mobile phones of days gone by had wimpy 1.3 megapixel (MP) lenses, but the high-resolution cameras and photography software built into today's smartphones and tablets are more than sufficient for non-professional uses. The latest iPhones have 8MP cameras, the Samsung Galaxy S5 and S6 both have 16 MP. On the high end, there's the Nokia Lumia 950 (20MP) and the 1020 (41MP) smartphones.

One exception, especially if you are an avid photographer, might be a compact digital camera. See my article Are Digital Cameras Extinct? for the scoop on those.

(4) PRETTY MUCH ANYTHING YOU FIND ON A CROWDFUNDING SITE such as Kickstarter or Indiegogo. A lot of people mistakenly think they're buying a product when they contribute to crowdfunding projects. In fact, you're actually investing in a company, with the usual risk of losing your investment if the company fails. A lot of crowdfunding projects fail to ever deliver a product, and many more experience months-long delays, quality disasters, and other problems. One perfect example is the $500 Coolest Cooler that was hyped on Kickstarter. I covered this boondoggle in The Biggest Tech Flops of 2015.

(5) BEATS BY DR. DRE or anything bearing Dre's name. After all, he's the guy who famously said, "If you ain't in it for the money get out (of) the game." Beats Solo HD headphones sell for $199 (the top model costs $450). But they cost just $20 to manufacture. About 30% of their total weight is inert metal weights inserted just to add "heft."

(6) TAXI RIDES, if you live in a major city. Uber and Lyft are considerably cheaper, unless you get stung by "surge pricing" because you didn't pay attention to the notice on your smartphone screen. Car-sharing services, like Car2Go and ZipCar, let you rent a car right off the street for short trips, and you can drop it off just about anywhere.

(7) BRAND-NAME PRINTER INK -- Brand-name printer ink cartridges can be a huge rip-off. A single black cartridge, rated for less than 1,000 pages, can cost $60 at an office supply store! Re-manufactured ink cartridges cost less than $10 or $20 each from independent suppliers. You may have to deal with false "out of genuine ink" warnings from your printer, but you can click them away while counting your savings. And contrary to rumors perpetuated by printer manufacturers, using alternative ink cartridges does not void your printer's warranty. See The Truth About Discount Ink Cartridges.

(8) CABLE TV -- Consumers are "cutting the cable" in ever increasing numbers - between 280,000 and 360,000 unsubscribed in the third quarter of 2015, up from 189,000 the year before. Why pay well over $100/month for hundreds of channels, most of which you never watch? Netflix, with a huge library of movies and TV episodes, plus original programming, costs $9 a month. Amazon Prime subscribers get Amazon Video as well as free two-day shipping. Hulu offers day-old episodes of popular programs from ABC, the CW, Fox Network, and NBC. See my Cord Cutter's Cost Comparison Calculator article.

(9) ANYTHING THAT REMOTELY RESEMBLES A TINFOIL HAT, whether it goes on your head or your wallet. In 2014, I debunked the totally useless $15 "Signal Vault," a credit card sized envelope that claimed to prevent hackers from reading your card over distances up to 25 feet. Now we have "Shield: the world's first signal-proof headwear." Yes, it's a stylish tinfoil hat. Did I also mention it's on Kickstarter?

(10) YOUR CREDIT REPORT -- You're entitled to one free credit report per year from each of the major reporting service. You really don't need to review your credit report more than three times a year. See HOWTO: Get Your Free Credit Report Online.

(11) Also, CREDIT MONITORING AND/OR IDENTITY THEFT PROTECTION programs offer peace of mind, but that may already be yours for free. Most banks offer limitations of liability for unauthorized card charges. Many offer free transaction alerts via email and SMS messages. And credit reporting agencies will "freeze" your credit history so no one can open a new line of credit unbeknown to you. See 10 TIPS: Identity Theft Protection.

(12) A DEDICATED GPS NAVIGATION DEVICE -- Smartphone apps such as Waze for Android and GPS Navigation for iOS provide voice-guided, turn by turn directions to any destination. Plus, they can network with other users to create real-time traffic jam and speed trap information.

CCI 2016 Rallies

Here is the 2016 SCHEDULE.

CCI is in the early planning phase on next year's schedule, rally locations, and event themes. We are currently working with all three host sites. More information will be available in upcoming issues of the eNews.

February 8-12, 2016

Tampa, Florida

LazyDays Tampa

CCI Snowbirds and Members from all over the Southeast gather to celebrate late winter festivities. As a beloved Florida RV park, Lazydays RV Resort will be our motorhome paradise. The facility has just what you need to feel right at home. You'll find incredible amenities to relax and unwind, or enjoy fun activities that your Club is developing. In addition, you'll find exceptional pet-friendly accommodations - your pet is welcome to go everywhere you go, except the onsite restaurants.

April 25-29, 2016

St. Louis, Missouri

"Meet Me in St. Louis" . . . Celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Gateway Arch!

We will rally just west of St. Louis. We'll be featuring the Gateway Arch and its 50th Anniversary! With numerous museums, the St. Louis Zoo, Grant's Farm, concerts and more; St. Louis is also home to outdoor cafes, shopping, wonderful festivals, and the famous St. Louis Cardinals. We will be located near Historic St. Charles, where you can relive the Early American Spirit. This charming community, located on the banks of the Missouri River, was Missouri's First State Capitol. Visit one-of-a-kind shops located in restored buildings that date back to the 1800's. Stroll along brick paved streets. You'll also find frontier re-enactments, arts and crafts demonstrations, music, art fairs, and festivals.

October 6-11, 2016

Lexington, Kentucky

Kentucky Horse Park

The Kentucky Horse Park (KHP) is the leading U.S. tourist attraction for all things "horse" and one of the world's best equine competition facilities. This facility has to be on every horse lover's bucket list. Nevertheless, everyone will find this a fascinating destination. This is home to many of America's most famous Thoroughbreds; either retired or laid to rest. Your rally package will include admission to the world-renowned International Museum of the Horse, an affiliate of the Smithsonian Institution, the American Saddlebred Museum - the Showplace for Saddlebreds, a Horse-Drawn Tour and equine presentations throughout the day. Set amidst the rolling hills of the Bluegrass lies one of America's finest resort campgrounds, our home for the rally.
