PRESIDENT
Bill Sax

Hello CCI! Today we are enjoying one of the unwritten benefits of belonging to Country Coach International. Moochdocking. What is that you ask? It's camping in someone's driveway for free. We have made so many friends in CCI and are constantly being asked to "stop by" for a couple of nights. This week are visiting CCI friends in North Carolina while we are on our tour of the east. When you come to CCI rallies you make quick friends who can help you troubleshoot issues with your coach, teach you tricks to keep it on the road and more important establish friendships that last a lifetime. We have visited numerous CCI members over the years. Not always moochdocking, sometimes we camp nearby and visit for a while, but you get the idea....

Anyway, this summer we are spending our time in New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland & Virginia, with this quick stop in North Carolina. We spent a week in Gettysburg and plan on visiting Antietam next week. Rita has a few rallies she wants to attend this summer the rest is relaxing, golfing, bike riding and maybe learning a little Civil War history.

I think its still raining at home, but the weather where we are has been perfect, the only problem we have is the crazy diesel prices. WTH! We use the TSD Logistics card and it has helped a lot. Yesterday we saved $0.82 per gallon got the price down to $5.17. That still hurts, but its better than over $6.00. (If you are unfamiliar with the TSD card there's an article in a past newsletter, or just reach out to me). Hopefully this will get better soon. Being full-timers, we are kind of at the mercy of the market, but so are you. We are hearing from some friends who are shortening their trips or cancelling them all together. Whatever you do I hope you get a chance to use your coach this summer.....

We plan on attending the Pennsylvania rally next month as well as the Louisiana rally in October (keep an eye out for when registration opens). I keep repeating the same thing about this club, but its so true I can't stop. The benefits of a Country Coach exclusive club are the expansive knowledge base both online, in the members only section, and the actual human "database" only a phone call away. So, if you aren't a member yet join now. If you haven't attended a rally, do it soon! The rallies are always fun, but the friends you will make are ... Priceless.....

As always....

We'll be CCing you on the road.

Bill

A Letter from Rick Toalson / CCI Member

Note: This letter was written by Rick several month ago and we failed to get it in the newsletter until now. Please take the time to read as he talks of the great relationships that he and Tammy have made with our Country Coach Family.

I do not recall exactly when we purchased our first Country Coach. It was sometime in 2002 and it was a beautiful ride. We kept it until Tammy found our 1999 Magna on Ebay in 2004. We bought it in August and it was our home away from home for almost nine years. We have owned our current 2006 Affinity for eight and a half years now and it has taken us on more adventures than we have any right to ask for.

While the times and dates blur with the passing of the years, there has been one constant, our Country Coach family. We attended our very first CC rally in 2004 in New Orleans, LA. The very first person I met was Bob Harbrecht. He was walking his Sheltie pup and I was walking ours. Since the first day we have remained close friends. We have been to each other's homes, shared meals, great times and challenging times as well. Bob and Ruth even came by after Hurricane Michael to help us pick up our shattered homestead. They are dear friends and we love them. We were saddened when we heard that Ruth passed away this last February, 2022.

Tammy and I were on the phone with Debbie and Gary Glenn the night before the terrible accident that took Gary's life. I was just listening in while Tammy was on the speakerphone talking CC business, rallies, and generic stuff. I always feel obliged to throw a smart comment in now and then to keep in the conversation.

I can vividly recall meeting Gary and Debbie for the first time. Gary was perched in a comfortable chair with an adult beverage in hand sitting by their Magna. Anyone that knows me can vouch that I will almost always stop and talk with someone. (My mom said that I never met a stranger). Debbie came out and offered me a refreshment and a chair and that was the beginning. Rallies, a fabulous trip to DC, meals, drinks, lies and stories all fell in line behind that day.

Gary took to the club and made things happen. When no one stepped up to do something, he would say, "Hell, I'll do it!". Gary and Debbie were just special. They put so much into our group and I know that I didn't say thank you for all they did. That is true for all of the men and women that make this club function and stay together. I want to say thank you all right now. Your efforts change our lives.

When the phone rang about Gary's accident, I just went numb. We knew it was bad, but we prayed for the best. I thought about the phone call I chimed in on and wished I had said something meaningful to our friend who was fighting for his life. I am sorry that I haven't reached out to you Debbie. You have been in my prayers and my heart. I can not imagine what you have endured. Gary and you seemed so perfect for each other and we loved our time together with you two.

We had a great time at that rally and every other one we have attended. The friends we made during this Country Coach tenure have been nothing short of amazing. Buddy Bordes and Pete Hayes came to our home after Hurricane Michael and helped clean up and they both brought supplies. Most of the time immediately after the storm is a blur. I was in shock from the all of the damage.

What is clear in my mind is who showed up to help us. That was our CC family. We were at a rally in Tennessee when the storm hit. Our friends at the rally filled our car with supplies to take back to Panama City for us. Thank you all for that very kind gesture.

We dropped our coach off with Al and Billie Stewart in Columbus, GA and drove our supply filled car to our home in Florida. I met them at our Shipshewana, IN rally years before. They watched our dog for us and while we made a four hour one-way trip to Panama City to survey the damages. Thanks to our Country Coach friends, Al and Billie, too. Your kindness during those difficult times will never be forgotten.

My brother asked me why in the world I take the time to go meet a bunch of people I barely know. It was easy to answer, because the people we know, the new people we get to meet, and the times we have are irreplaceable. The kindness, friendship and helpfulness we have enjoyed since our first Country Coach rally have surpassed anything I ever would have dreamed of.

Our coach was in the shop getting a new front suspension and Tammy had asked if anyone had any recommendations on where we could stay while we were out of the coach in Oregon. The fires and unrest in the region made finding a place in a hotel or B&B impossible. Our Country Coach family came to the rescue again. We spent five days with Rick and Mary Adams at their llama ranch in Bend, OR. We had a fabulous time and I felt more relaxed than I have in years. Thank you Rick and Mary for sharing your beautiful home with Tammy and I.

I could go on but you should get the picture. We are a group that helps each other. We don't have to get together often to care about each other. I do not hesitate to say that in a lot of cases, my Country Coach friends are closer than a lot of my family. Family is who loves you, not just who you are related to.

Getting a Country Coach and getting to know all of these people, and hundreds more that I have not yet had a chance to meet, is a blessing. Our times together provide a respite from our daily lives.

Gary Glenn's and Ruth Harbrecht's passing is a hard reminder that our time together is too short and not promised. It is easy to see them in my mind. Some good friends that I wish I had spent more time with. So for all of you that know me, I want to apologize for not keeping in touch as much as I would like to. Thank you all for being in our group and enriching our lives. My fervent hope is that everyone will take some time to acknowledge the important people in their lives. We won't always have a chance to do that.

Preventative Maintenance

Compiled from the Country Coach Tech Topics site by Mike Cebula

Insider tips for properly maintaining your motorcoach

It seems that anytime two or more coach owners are gathered around the campground, it doesn't take long for a conversation to start. Odds are that this conversation will quickly turn to the topic of preventive maintenance; "How often are you changing your oil?" "Have you tried that new synthetic transmission fluid yet?" "Do you rotate your tires?" Seems like everyone has an opinion as to the best way to maintain their motorcoach.

Most of us have heard or read about the most common preventive maintenance tasks: oil change intervals, air filter replacements, and so on. Following are some items that may not have occurred to you in a while.

1. EXTENDED LIFE COOLANTS

Some owners are changing over to one of the extended life coolants (ELC) now on the market. Due to the reduced maintenance schedule, this is an increasingly popular alternative to using standard coolant. However, it is essential to use the correct coolant filter. If you have already changed over to ELC, make sure that your service technician is aware of this and uses the correct filter, at the correct interval, which can be found in your chassis maintenance manual. Correct ELC filters do not contain any of the Supplemental Coolant Additives (SCA) designed for standard coolants. Also, please note that standard coolant and ELC are not compatible. Do not mix the two in the same engine. If you are not the original owner of your coach, you should consider having a qualified service center check your coolant to see which type is in use. At the same time, the technicians can also use a coolant test strip to sample the SCA levels to determine if they need to be refreshed.

If you decide to switch to an alternative specification coolant and wish to reduce the risk of contamination with an incompatible coolant when you have your coach in for service, simply adhere a label to the surge tank that is readily visible, and clearly identifies the specification of the coolant used in the system.

Preventative Maintenance

2. AIR SYSTEM

The air system is another important part of the chassis that shouldn't be overlooked in routine preventive maintenance. Purge the air tank regularly (daily if you're driving lots of miles) and note whether any water is expelled from the purge valves. On Allures and Intrigues, these purge valves are located on the forward wall of the steering compartment (first bay, driver's side). On Magnas, Affinitys and Lexas, these valves are located behind the passenger side front bumper, and are operated using the 'Air Tank Purge' switch located on either the shifter console, or the console behind the driver's seat. The ignition must be on when operating this system. A small amount of moisture is normal in humid conditions, or if the system has not been purged for some time. However, greater amounts of water expressed during regular purging could indicate a problem within the system that requires attention. In addition to causing corrosion within the air system, water within the lines can freeze, causing possible damage to control valves and air springs. Also, do not neglect the air dryer desiccant cartridge. For best performance, it should be changed out every two years or 50,000 miles.

Preventative Maintenance

3. OVER-THE-ROAD A/C

Another “dryer” that can become easily neglected is the receiver/dryer in the dash (or over-the-road) air conditioner system. This dryer should be replaced any time that the system’s refrigerant has been evacuated to allow servicing or replacement of components in the system.

4. WATER HEATER ANODE

Does your water heater have a sacrificial anode? If you have a Suburban heater, the answer is probably “yes”. The purpose of the anode is to sacrifice itself to the electrolysis process that takes place in all water heaters where heavy metals and salt are present in the water. To avoid excessive corrosion of the water heater’s tank, this anode should be inspected annually for signs of deterioration. The anode should be replaced when it has deteriorated more than 25% (see image below). However, the anode itself is inexpensive and it is wise to replace it annually as a matter of routine. The manufacturer’s documentation for your water heater should identify the exact location of the anode if one indeed exists. To inspect or replace the anode, first turn off the water heater at both the monitor panel, and the breaker in the distribution panel. Allow some time for the water to cool before proceeding. Next, turn off the water pump, and disconnect the city water. With this step complete, drain the water from the heater using either the faucet in the water bay, or low point drains, also located in the water bay adjacent to the water pump. Lastly, use a suitably sized socket and handle to remove the anode.

5. A TUNED RIDE

A subject that is especially deserving of periodic focus is ride height, weight, balance, tire pressure and alignment. These can be some of the most important items to check on your coach. Letting any of these areas get out of specification can negatively impact coach handling and tire wear. Have you ever noticed that the bays can mysteriously collect items as you travel around the country? The weight of these items can add up over time and require some redistribution to bring the balance of the coach back to proper trim. New coach owners should pay close attention to this weight distribution until they are familiar with their coach, and it is a good idea to have the alignment checked once the coach has been loaded with personal belongings, and a few trips have been completed. The coach was aligned carefully at the factory, but this alignment can change with the additional weight of these personal items.

Preventative Maintenance

6. TRANSMISSION FLUID

Tired of changing out the transmission fluid so frequently? Consider switching to the 'TranSynd' synthetic fluid recommended by Allison. This will not only extend the service interval but will likely benefit the transmission as well.

The list of preventive maintenance items for a diesel coach is quite extensive and detailed. It's always easy to overlook an item that comes due on a time basis, rather than a mileage basis. Give the manual another reading and you'll probably find something in there that you've forgotten about. Then the next time you get into one of those maintenance discussions with another owner, you'll be able to bring up something new.

Upcoming CCI Rally Information

Rallies are just one of the reasons to join Country Coach International but as CCI rally coordinator I think they are the BEST reason!

Join us at Spring Gulch RV Resort in beautiful New Holland, PA. We will arrive on July 15th and depart on July 22nd, 2022. We plan to venture out to see all Lancaster County has to offer. Spend some time in the Amish Farmlands, explore the antique trains and enjoy a ride through the Pennsylvania countryside. Drive through the Welsh Mountains of Pennsylvania Dutch Country and shop in the city of Lancaster. We will round out the week with a visit to the “sweetest place on earth”, Hershey, PA. (REGISTRATION IS CLOSED BUT CHECK WITH TAMMY TO SEE IF SHE CAN GET YOU IN!)

Cajun Country is calling! Cajun Palms RV Resort in Breaux Bridge, LA is hosting our club. Plan on arriving on Oct 17th and departing on Oct 24th, 2022, for a week of fun. Cajun Palms Resort is conveniently located between Lafayette and Baton Rouge and close to Henderson, Louisiana, Cajun Palms RV Resort provides a great rally destination! Henderson is well known for its Cajun culture and it's legendary Cajun cooking and crawfish. This area hosts a number of popular restaurants, shops and swamp tours.

You won't be wasting away if you join us at Margaritaville RV Resort, Auburndale, FL! We will arrive on Jan 23rd and depart on Jan 30th, 2023 after a glorious week in “warm” central Florida. The resort is located an hour southwest of Orlando and just outside of Lakeland, Florida. Historic and quaint Auburndale is one of Central Florida's smaller cities, but it definitely has a lot to offer. Great seafood, shopping and all of the amenities you would expect to find.

All three of these resorts have planned activities and entertainment that we may enjoy during our stay. As always, we will have food, fun and fellowship. We will make plenty of time for those all-important tech talks as well as other coach related activities.

If you have questions, comments or suggestions, feel free to give me a call or email!
