PRESIDENT'S REPORT

FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

Hi CCI,

OK, it's camping season, or "glamping" season with these beautiful coaches! I'm writing this letter for Country Coach International, internationally. Rita & I are on our caravan to Alaska. We have been in Canada for a couple of weeks and are past the halfway point in Seward, Alaska. (We survived the tsunami scare this weekend!)

We left in mid-May with our 13-year-old granddaughter, Mica, for a 61-day caravan, and we added a couple of weeks just to get to the starting point in Great Falls, MT. We stopped at a CCI member's house in Rapid City and mooch-docked for a while, seeing the local sites like Mt Rushmore and others. We also played a little pickleball on their indoor court.

Here is a great perk of being a CCI member: you meet other Country Coach members at rallies, establish friendships, and get suggestions on places to stay. Some of those places are the members' driveways. We have done this numerous times. Staying with friends just strengthens friendships and unites all of us. What a great way to RV.

Anyway, we will be traveling 5,500 miles on the official caravan through Canada and Alaska with numerous excursions along the way. We chose a professional caravan company so we wouldn't have to plan anything. So far, it has been working flawlessly, and we are making many new friends. Our caravan consists of 17 rigs: Class A's, 5th wheels, travel trailers, and one truck camper.

The caravan ends in Prince George, BC. We will then meet our daughter in Seattle to drop off Mica. Afterward, we are heading to Oregon to rally with the Northwest Country Coach club. Finally, we are off to Premier RV of Oregon in Junction City for some RV work and the start of our Rolling Rally in Oregon.

In case anyone cares, I'm doing my best to blog while we are doing this, so feel free to get the link from Facebook or contact me, and I'll send it to you.

As always, I'll be CCing you!
Bill

REFLECTION

This year has brought so many surprises and heartaches and it is just half over. I am at an age when my family and friends are being taken away by so many avenues. Accidents, illness, strokes, heart attacks and some with no apparent reason whatsoever. I recognize my mortality and appreciate my family and friends even more than I ever have before.

You might wonder what this has to do with our motorhome community. The answer is simple. Take the time to live your life to the fullest. Every day is a gift and there are no tomorrows promised to anyone. Traveling in the coach and spending time with friends is one of the best things we do. Twenty years ago when we attended our first rally, we were the youngest couple there. We lost that status long ago but many of the people we met on that first rally are still our friends.

Hurricane Michael destroyed our property and caused over a million dollars in damage to our place. Five years into the reconstruction and we are still a long way from seeing the end. We had so many of our Country Coach friends and family come over to help us rebuild. It was quite humbling to have so many help out so much. Thank you all.

Homes, coaches and our lives can be swept away in an instant. Few people I know lie on their deathbeds and lament, "I sure wish I would have spent more time working." Life is about balance. Balance is important in every aspect of our lives. You can't give too much of yourself to your kids, grandkids or anyone. Take the time to take care of yourself. Establish boundaries so people don't take advantage of you. Give yourself adequate praise and consideration for getting to where you are in this world. This is a bountiful universe and you and I are entitled to all we can garner while we are here.

We all have the propensity to gauge ourselves by our peers or family. Don't fall for that one. You are the only one who can determine what you can do. One of my good friends in the Air Force had a sign on his desk that I never forgot; "It is your attitude, not your aptitude, that will determine your altitude." I like that because it sends an empowering message.

REFLECTION

Tammy and I have been very blessed with good health, a great family and friends and many abilities. Through our hard work, we earn a good living. When we desire something, we are generally able to get it without any problem. That is a good feeling and I thank God for all of these things daily.

Most of us have worked for what we have and there is no reason to short yourself in your latter life when it comes to using your own money. My mom could have done anything she wanted. Instead of traveling or doing things with my dad, she worked because she wanted a million dollars in the bank. She had well over that amount in retirement and properties and such. But that pursuit of a million took the rest of her life. She didn't enjoy it. She didn't spend much of it and I don't think it gave her any particular joy. It was just an arbitrary number that she used to limit her life. She also took my father's dream to travel and see our country with her when she died.

Our Country Coach community is filled with great people who have accomplished great things. Almost every person I have met over the past twenty plus years was special. Take the time to enjoy the rallies if you can. Travel with a friend in your coach and investigate some new places. Take the time to travel the greatest country in the world and see it from a vantage point that is impossible to beat. Safe travels and remember to honor yourself and take care of yourself. If you don't, no one will do it for you.

FMCA BENEFITS AND DISCOUNTS

Contributed by: Max Hegler, CCI FMCA National Director

FMCA Benefits are those included with your $50 yearly dues, FMCA Discounts are price discounts for products and services purchased through FMCA distributors.

FMCA Benefits include:

FMCA Assist, this is the best benefit that is included when you pay your yearly $50 dues. This benefit starts when you are a minimum of 75 miles away from your home and you are ANYWHERE in the world using any form of transportation, such as Air, Cruise Liner, Taxi, or any other method. FMCA Assist is a medical evacuation when you or a member of your family with you need to be moved from a point of illness to a hospital or emergency care facility. This evacuation is paid for by Chubb Insurance, FMCA's carrier for this life saving benefit. When you are taken to an Emergency Room, this benefit also pays you $250 cash to help with immediate expenses, and you are covered ANYWHERE in the world. Your FMCA F-number is your policy ID number. If you decide to stop RVing, then you can become an Associate Member of FMCA and pay your dues and keep this FMCA Assist benefit for all your "other transportation" method of travel greater than 75 miles away from home.

FMCA Family RVing Magazine, this informative magazine is published monthly and postal mailed or electronically emailed to your household. This benefit keeps you up to date on current events in the RVing lifestyle. The January issue of each year is the most informative and should be kept on the ready for all the information and answers it provides to FMCA questions.

RV Insurance, provides the best pricing for RV insurance through FMCA qualified brokers. Get a quote and FMCA is paid a dividend for each quote requested by FMCA members. The brokers check the prices of all the insurance companies and come back with the low- est price policy that meets your requirements.

FMCA Campground Cincinnati OH is a benefit that is allowed to all members. There are 15 Full Hookup sites and 10 water and electric sites. Each member gets two free nights per month and additional nights are $15 for full hook up and $10 for electric only. You must register online for this benefit. Depending on space availability, members may stay a maximum of five additional nights per month for a fee of $30 per night for a full hookup and $20 per night for electric-only. Reservations are required.

FMCA Mobile App is available for your phone to easily access all the benefits and discounts that we are mentioning in this format.

CFMCA University is a reference source for all the magazine articles and technical articles ever written and published by FMCA for your easy browsing and research. Browse for your desired subject matter and save for future reference.

Stopping Spots is a list of stop over places where you can stay in your RV overnight for free. This benefit includes Come Visit where you can stay longer and Mechanics Helper where an FMCA member may be available at your travel location to help with mechanical issues you may be having, and Pinch-Hit Driver to help with driving your RV to a local location because of an emergency you may be having.

FMCA Chapters are for everyone and you get the most out of your FMCA membership by joining a chapter and getting involved. There are no limits to the number of chapters you can belong to and the friendships you make will last a lifetime.

FMCA BENEFITS AND DISCOUNTS

FMCA Discounts:

Costco Membership discount for New Costco customers. Get a discount on the membership fee when you first join this mega membership store and show your FMCA card upon Costco registration.

US Postal Service shipping discounts are available when shipping packages and large envelopes. Just show you FMCA membership card and look for the savings.

Printing Services at Staples, Office Max, and Office Depot offer large discounts to FMCA members.

Roadside Rescue is FMCA's roadside assistance program when you are broken down on the road. The best advantage is that there is no restriction to the age of the RV in order to apply and receive this discount feature.

Tech Connect Plus is the FMCA Wi-Fi service administered through AT&T. Let them know you are a FMCA member and benefit from the reduced monthly fees and get reliable WiFi while on the road and at home. This is a lease service and there is no monthly contract and can be cancelled at any time.

FMCA Tire Buying Service Program allows you to buy tires for your RV, your trailer, your automobile, your truck at authorized program distributors. Participating tire manufacturers are Michelin, BF Goodrich, Uniroyal, Continental, and very soon, Goodyear will be included in the list. Only the tires are discounted, other mounting charges are based on distributors advertised rates. Go online for prices and installation instructions.

International Travel Insurance is available and includes Medical Assistance, Emergency Evacuation, Cancelled Flight due to disaster, and Concierge services.

KOA Kampground member discounts when you join this campground and show your FMCA member card.

Passport America member discounts when you join this campground discount membership and show your FMCA member card.

New Coast Financial Services are available through FMCA when needed to finance or refinance your RV.

Mail Forwarding Service is available. Go online to FMCA.com for further information.

RV Whisper pet safety service is available. Go online to FMCA.com for further information.

Soft Start RV which is an easier starting procedure for your air conditioning and heat pump to reduce current during startup. This product is discounted using your membership upon purchase.

Note: The benefits and discounts listed above were told to the FMCA rally coordinator in Lebanon, TN by FMCA President Rett Porter.
