Remembering Bob Lee

Editors Comment. Our thanks to Saul Hubbard and The Register-Guard for allowing CCI to reprint their article (below) chronicling part of Bob Lee's life, his vision and passion for his work and lead role in developing Country Coach. We also thank the many photographs for recording some of the history of Country Coach International.

Column By Saul Hubbard

The Register-Guard

OCT. 17, 2017

Bob Lee, a pioneer in the local RV manufacturing industry that for decades was one of Lane County's largest employers, died earlier this month after a long period of poor health. He was 78.

Lee co-founded the company that became Monaco Coach in the late 1960s, before branching out on his own in 1973 in Junction City with a company named Country Camper, after the toy motor home of his daughter's Barbie doll.

The business later became Country Coach and, with Lee at the helm, an industry leader in manufacturing high-end motor homes, with the slogan "A Class Act." At its height, in the mid-2000s, Country Coach had about 1,800 employees.

But Lee experienced both the highs and lows of the cyclical RV-making business. His attempt to rescue Country Coach after he bought back the company with a group of investors in 2007 ended in failure when the Great Recession decimated the local industry. Country Coach abruptly shut down during its 2008 holiday break and was forced to declare bankruptcy. Its 500 remaining employees lost their jobs. Two other local RV-makers, Monaco and Marathon, laid off hundreds of their employees about the same time. Combined, the layoffs were a huge hit to the local economy.

Terry Lee, who was married to Bob Lee for 56 years, said he maintained a positive, can-do attitude throughout his business career. "I always had faith in Bob," she said. "He was a glass half-full kind of guy." Terry Lee said her husband came to love the motor-home lifestyle. The couple would log thousands of miles every year traveling to industry shows around the country. "He'd sit down and talk to people about the problems with their campers, and he'd talk about the problems with his," she said. "It helped him a lot."

Of the company's bankruptcy, she said that he "didn't say too much about it."

Shannon Nill, the president of Guaranty RV Super Centers in Junction City, a longtime seller of Country Coach vehicles, said Bob Lee was "a born leader" who was "always looking for an edge."

Bob Lee with Daughter Brenda

“He believed in the RV industry and he believed in Junction City,” he said. “He could have set up shop anywhere, but he chose Junction City. This town would not be what it is today without Bob Lee.”

Country Coach hasn't made any new RVs since 2008, but Nill said he believes Lee's legacy will be cemented by Winnebago Industries' purchase in 2015 of the former Country Coach plant. Winnebago, which is making expensive, diesel-powered motor homes in the facility, plans to eventually re-introduce the luxury Country Coach brand on some of its new RVs, Nill said. “That's a real merit to Bob and what he accomplished,” he said.

Lee was born in Klamath Falls in 1939 to a farming and logging family. After high school, he joined the U.S. Navy as a jet mechanic and later worked as a purchaser for NASA's Apollo space program. He moved back to Oregon in 1968 with two partners looking for a suitable place to start a camper manufacturing business.

In 1996, Lee sold Country Coach, by then a successful business, to a publicly traded company from California for $9 million. He continued to work as the company's CEO after it changed hands. In 2007, he led a group of investors who bought it back for $38.75 million and took the company private.

But facing mounting debts during the economic slowdown, the company closed its doors in December 2008. The Lee family purchased the company's engineering drawings, production tooling and molds for fabricating Country Coach motor homes, and other intellectual property at auction in 2010 while its other assets were liquidated in bankruptcy proceedings.

Outside of work, Lee was fascinated by aviation and hot rod muscle cars.

In 2010, he had a stroke, according to his wife, Terry Lee. At about the same time, he was diagnosed with Parkinson's disease and started experiencing short-term memory loss and slurred speech.

His deteriorating health meant that he wasn't able to be involved with attempts to revive Country Coach in recent years, Terry Lee said. Instead, Ron Lee, his brother and a longtime Country Coach executive, led those efforts, which culminated in the sale to Winnebago.

“It was a good run, and it was a lot of hard work,” Terry Lee said of her husband's time running Country Coach. “He had a wonderful life and did pretty much everything he wanted to do.”

SCRAPBOOK # 1

Jack & Jan Gossett of Longmont, Colorado were our very first Charter officers. They were very devoted and worked hard at getting us off to a good start and got us going. Nobody knows how hard Jan worked with all those names and monies to get it all together, huh, Jan?. "Good on YOU".....and THANKS Jack & Jan - a whole bunch! We will all love you forever.

This scrapbook was donated by our second IOCCO President, Brenda Kozachuk (and her husband, George). THANKS !

Compiled and edited by Blanche Miller
This book starts with the beginning of the club Nov. 1984 and follows through the Lexington, KY FMDA Conv. July 1986

More scrapbooks will follow.

It all Started right here with the Lee Brother's Grandfather, Dee Hawkins and the Lee Brother's parents, Bud and Juanita Lee. Grass just doesn't grow under their kid's feet. They have really put the "SHOW" on the road!!!

The Lee Brothers have two sisters. A "50th" Anniversary was well attended in August 1982.

The FIRST Country Camper Club was started in Junction City, Oregon by Blanche Miller and was chartered August 9, 1980 with 27 member units. The first outing was at Waterland RV Park at Florence, Oregon with 9 rigs present.

Marvin & Lorene Sanders of Coos Bay, Oregon own the FIRST Country Camper Mini Motor Home that was made by the Lee Brothers in 1975. It is still going strong in 1986. They are so proud to have OLD "1".

From Your President

FROM your PRESIDENT
by Mike Sowers

Hello Everyone;

I trust you are enjoying your fall season and getting ready to share the Holiday Season with family and friends! It's hard to believe that we're nearing the end of 2017! Last month we noted that Bob Lee had passed away but did not have time to expand on his life given the short deadline of the Newsletter. This month we celebrate Bob's life and contributions to the RV Industry and Country Coach. The rigs we know and love today are the result of Bob's innovation and determination!

Tammy and others on the Board are busy looking ahead to 2018 and planning our Rallies. Plan now for the upcoming January Tampa and March New Orleans Rallies in this eNewsletter or at the website.

Also coming up is our Board of Directors Elections. Every year, half of the Board members terms are up, and we solicit new Board members. Please let us know right away if you're interested in serving on the Board - our nominations team has been working hard to fill these important positions and we'll have elections in just a few weeks. Send nomination(s) ASAP to:
